By Aslan Athar

Pakistanis have many many talents. Stalking, creeping and making up the most absurd things about other people. But other than that there are Pakistanis with real talent and they deserve as much of our attention for hustling and making themselves a name with their insane creativity.

Here’s our jaw-dropping list of amazing Pakistani artists that NEED to be followed right now:

Salman Toor: @salman.toor

I remember seeing this artist and his work while shoulder surfing, I don’t regret it one bit.

Saba Khan: @sabakhan82

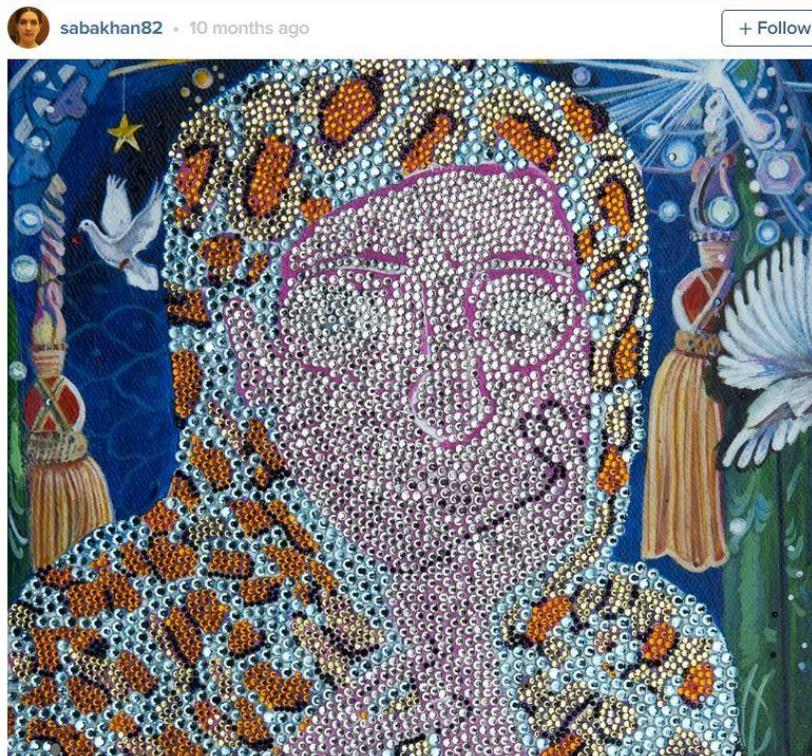

Saba's work redefines our understanding of art as paint on paper. There's so much going on, it may look chaotic at first, but the longer you look the more you're mesmerized.
